Domestic News

06.10.2023: Mannar - According to Economy Next, SL plans to expand a project started in Mannar which aims to reduce GoSL spending on grain imports through the provision of seeds and market opportunities to rural farmers across SL. In the Mannar district, around 950 tonnes of green beans have already been procured under this initiative - contributing to significant foreign exchange savings on grain imports.

09.10.2023: Viharai - A Buddhist Temple has been installed in Mankollai, KKS. This temple has been installed in front of the Varaivar Temple at this location. It's noteworthy that the area was under military control for the last 40 years.

16.10.2023: Jaffna - According to Economy Next, sour bananas are currently grown on 200 acres and TEJC mangoes on 500 acres in Jaffna. Together with the Rajangana sour banana project, about 10,000 kg of sour bananas are exported weekly to the Dubai market. These two projects are very successful.

19.10.2023: Fishing - According to Economy Next, SL needs to carefully manage the fishing industry in the northern sea between India and China as Beijing's sea cucumber business brings in more and more revenue in the face of increasing security concerns from Delhi and poaching among Indian fishermen. Depletion of fish stocks in the northern seas in the face of constant Indian bottom trawling has prompted some northern fishermen to take up China-funded sea cucumber farming.

20.10.2023: Agricultural Zone - According to Economy Next, farmers of Norochcholai and Kalpitiya have submitted a proposal to the Ministry of Agriculture to designate the area as an agricultural zone. In Norochcholai and Kalpitiya, vegetables and fruits are grown in large numbers. Both areas in Puttalam district have unique weather conditions, with predominantly dry and semi-arid climates.

23.10.2023: Airport - According to Economy Next, SL's smaller airports are to be upgraded due to the increase in air traffic. Passenger facilities at Palali International Airport will be upgraded, including expansion of the existing passenger terminal, creation of a duty-free shopping center, better sanitation facilities, facilities for immigration and customs officials, and improved infrastructure.

27.10.2023: Racism - According to Economy Next, opposition Tamil National Alliance (TNA) MP M. A. Sumanthiran wrote to the Inspector General of Police (IGP) that Mangalaramaya Ampitiya Sumana Thero had threatened to "cut to pieces" Tamils living in southern Sri Lanka. The MP described the monk's remark as a "flagrant offense" punishable under Section 3(1) and (2) of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR) Act No. 56 of 2007.

04.10.2023: CPA - According to Economy Next, the Centre for Policy Alternatives (CPA) has called on SL's government to withdraw the controversial online safety bill and instead draft a more transparent law with the support of various stakeholders. The bill was introduced to SL Parliament on 03.10.2023, by Tiran Alles - SL's Minister of Public Security, amidst opposition protests.

10.10.2023: Data Protection - According to Economy Next, R. Wickremesinghe has appointed directors to the board of the Sri Lanka Data Protection Authority (SLDPA). SL's Data Protection Act No. 9 of 2022 ("PDPA") is of utmost importance in light of GoSL and private sector digital strategies as well as global developments in data protection. It is expected to attract investment and boost the digital economy, in line with the National Digital Strategy and Sri Lanka's Unique Digital Identity (SL-UDI) project.

11.10.2023: SL Elections - SL Opposition Leader, Sajith Premadasa, strongly condemns R. Wickremesinghe and his government in a statement published on 09.10.2023, claiming that they were "scheming to postpone elections," reports Lanka Files.

12.10.2023: War - According to Economy Next, Sarath Weerasekara, head of the sectoral oversight committee on national security, has mentioned that SL's successive government has failed to explain the nature of the war between the state military and the LTTE to avoid the current situation where individual military and political leaders are targeted by select countries. Canada has banned former presidents M. Rajapaksa and G. Rajapaksa, who played crucial roles in the final stages of the 26-year war, from entering the country, while Germany, the United States, and Australia have denied entry to several other senior military leaders without providing reasons, he claims.

17.10.2023: Central Bank Law - According to Economy Next, SL's Central Bank Law 2023, which legalized fully discretionary macroeconomic policy in a reserve-collecting central bank, is an unfortunate resurrection of original ideas proposed by classical mercantilists. The idea of output gap targeting with easy money goes back to the Scottish mercantilist John Law and the fully discretionary flexible policy to James Stuart.

18.10.2023: Tamils - According to Economy Next, Minister of State for Commerce S. Viyalanderan says Tamil political leaders in SL must work with President Ranil Wickremesinghe's "flexible approach to achieve national unity" and address the challenges facing the Tamil people. Viyalanderan told reporters on Tuesday, 17.10.2023, that it was commendable that Wickremesinghe had appointed a Tamil as governor of the Eastern Province for the first time in history.

24.10.2023: Visa - According to Economy Next, SL has approved the issuance of free visas to tourists from India, China, Russia, Malaysia, Japan, Indonesia and Thailand. The Cabinet approved this as a pilot project until 31.03.2024 with immediate effect.

31.10.2023: World Bank - According to Economy Next, World Bank Managing Director for Operations Anna Bjerde called for more climate-resilient agriculture in SL during a site visit that included representatives from the Asian Development Bank and Japan. SL needs more initiatives to meet the challenges of climate change, both through mitigation and adaptation, she said.

02.10.2023: Money Creation - According to Economy Next, SL has warned that the accumulation of foreign reserves has slowed and has renewed a warning against money printing. Given the ongoing uncertainty, it remains important to rebuild external buffers through strong reserve accumulation.

03.10.2023: IMF - According to Economy Next, SL has not agreed to some recommendations of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) as they would increase the burden on the population.

05.10.2023: Key Interest Rate - According to Economy Next, the Central Bank of SL has cut the key interest rate by 100 basis points to 10 and 11 % in order to push inflation to 5 % and achieve "potential growth." The Board reached this decision after a careful analysis of current and expected developments, including low inflation and favourable inflation expectations in the domestic economy.

10.10.2023: Fitch - According to Economy Next, Fitch Ratings has upgraded Ceylon Electricity Board's (CEB) National Long-Term Rating and CEB's Senior Unsecured Notes Rating to 'BB+(lka)' from 'B(lka)'. The upgrade follows the upgrade of SL's local currency long-term issuer default rating (IDR) to 'CCC-' from 'Restricted Default (RD)' dated 28.09.2023.

13.10.2023: Port City - According to Economy Next, SL's Chinese-built port city has attracted USD 1.6 billion in investment for a range of projects, and investors are waiting for legislation to be finalised. However, criticism, including from the US, that the Chinese-built land could be used to launder money has affected the port city's ability to attract investment.

16.10.2023: Hambantota - According to Economy Next, China Harbour Engineering Company Ltd (CHEC), a subsidiary of state-owned China Communications Construction Company (CCCC) Limited, has resumed talks on an investment zone in Hambantota promised by the SL government. GoSL has promised the Chinese company 6,070 hectares of land in an industrial zone adjacent to the Hambantota port. If talks are successful, a decision will be made on where the new zone will be built.

16.10.2023: BOI - According to Economy Next, SL's Board of Investment (BOI) is analysing the financial capabilities of applicants bidding for mining licences after the award criteria were changed. The cabinet in August approved several proposals by R. Wickremesinghe aimed at encouraging foreign and domestic investment in SL's extractive sector to boost revenues in a corrupted sector.

21.10.2023: Debt - According to Economy Next, China will assist its financial institutions in reaching an early agreement on the treatment of SL's debt. The Export Import Bank of China, the main lender, had already reached a preliminary agreement on USD 4.2 billion in debt, which is classified as bilateral. A USD 535 million loan from the China Development Bank and a USD 2.1 loan from the CDB, also classified as commercial, are still outstanding.
